General Guidelines -

While submitting manuscripts, please take following points under consideration:-

1. Typed Manuscript Preparation - Most of the writers in these days write their compositions on their laptops or computers, try to type your manuscript yourself. This will give the two benefits; first you will know how to write on laptops or computers which you will be able to use in E-books. Second - typing on your own will reduce typing mistakes. Prepare the manuscript of your proposed book in MS word.
2. Flawless Manuscript - Always keep in mind that if the language and grammatical mistakes in your manuscripts are less, then it will leave a positive effect on editors. Although every publisher's editorial team tries to correct pre-publication language and grammar discrepancies, the lower it is in your manuscript, the easier and better it is for the publication team.
3. Sending manuscript for consideration - You need to send your manuscript in MS words or PDF format to the email address – author@ronakpublication.com . The fonts should be clear and readable. Avoid using fancy fonts. Ronak Publication House does not accept manuscript by post. You can submit by hand at our office. Please also don't send a scanned copy of your hand written manuscript. Manuscript received in that format will not be considered.
